

The American Institute for Conservation Presents

After the Storm: Recovery of Wet Collections Workshop Application

In partnership with the Federal Emergency Management Agency (FEMA), the Louisiana Association of Museums (LAM), the Louisiana Department of Culture, Recreation, and Tourism, The National Archives and Records Administration (NARA), and the NPS National Center for Preservation Technology and Training (NCPTT). Funding for the workshops provided by the Samuel H. Kress Foundation.

Contact Information

First Name

Last Name

Affiliation

Street Address

City

State

Zip Code

Telephone

Fax

E-mail

Choice of Workshop Location

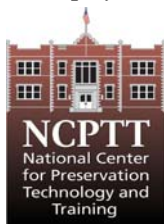

- ☐ March 16, New Orleans, National D-Day Museum, 945 Magazine Street, (504) 527-6012 x225
- ☐ March 17, Baton Rouge, LSU Rural Life Museum, Essen Lane, (225) 765-2437
- ☐ March 20, Natchitoches, NCPTT, 645 University Parkway, (318) 356-7444

Application

Briefly describe your reasons for applying to this workshop. What do you expect to get out of the workshop?

Payment

Registration Fee is $30.00 per person, payable by check or money order to NSU/NCPTT Wet Recovery Workshop

Submit Payment before March 8, 2006 to:

NCPTT, 645 University Parkway, Natchitoches, LA 71457

Attn: Wet Recovery Workshop

For additional Information call NCPTT, 318/356-7444